

Water Rachel Rimell

An award-winning photographer based in Malton, whose work explores human kinship with the land, sea and sky.

- Holds an MA in Photography (Distinction) from Falmouth University
- Lectures in photography at York College & University Centre
- Founder, curator and artistic director for Ryedale Film&Photo Fest
- Trained as a photojournalist; spent 25+ years in editorial & press roles before moving into conceptual art & documentary photography
- Previously worked as chief press officer to the government's chief scientific adviser on climate change at DEFRA
- Exhibited nationally and internationally
- A winner of Portrait of Britain (2020)
- Finalist in The Guardian's Women Behind the Lens
- Shortlisted for RPS IPE165
- Belfast Photo Festival (2022)
- Shortlisted for Photo North Emerging Artist (2023)

Published by/in

- BBC
- Vogue Italia
- Stir The Pot
- Rankin's This Is Britain
- Source Magazine
- The Guardian

Recently exhibited at

- Dalby Forest
- Helmsley Arts Centre
- Ryedale Folk Museum
- Humber Street Gallery

